Marshall, of Crystal Springs, Ga., will be called to the pastorate of the Church. Mr. Marshall was pastor of the Church for seven years and resigned to accept a call by the Baptist Church, of Anderson, S. C., some years ago. Mr. Marshall is an able preacher of great suavity of manners, and was universally loved by not only the members of his own

Church but by the people generally." Sometimes laughable slips of the tongue happen that are amusing to the auditors but not to the one whose tongue is responsible for the slip. An orator once exclaimed, "He jests at wounds who never felt a scar;" and a young lady was once reciting the famous poem "Curfew shall not ring to-night," and when she came to the part where the maiden of the ooem was told, "Go, your lover lives," her tongue tangled and she made Cromwell say, "Go, your liver loves." At the last Court held here Clerk of Court Watkins read a bill from the Grand Jury signed J. L. Eskew, Foreman, "J. L. Foreman, Eskew," and the "audible smile" produced by the amusing lapsus linguæ made the gentleman conscious of the slip of the "unruly member" and he immediately read the signature correctly.
